Nouns, Nouns! Everywhere!

In each short story, please circle all of the nouns.

Brett wants to be an astronaut and work at NASA when he grows up. When he was only eight he visited the Johnson Space Center in Houston, Texas. He got to meet some of the astronauts while he was there. He learned how the astronauts eat, work, and sleep on the shuttle. Brett was told that there will be another mission soon. He wishes he could be on the mission.

Timothy loves to help his dad when a repair needs to be made somewhere in their house. His father gave Timothy his own set of tools. Together, they figure out what is wrong and how they can fix it. Yesterday, a pipe under the sink in the kitchen began to leak. It has gotten much worse, so they will go to Home Depot on Charlotte Avenue to buy a new pipe. At the store, Dad asked the store clerk which pipe would be best for their sink. The clerk gave them a pipe and asked Dad to take it to the front of the store to purchase it. They headed home and began to fix the sink.
